

NEATH PORT TALBOT HERITAGE NETWORK

On Monday, May 28, at the Dove, NPT Heritage Network mets under the chairmanship of Lloyd Ellis and had two very interesting updates, one by the heritage officer of the DVP - Katie Millien - and the other on the progress of the new Afan Argoed Miners Museum. Katie Millien is to hold heritage drop-in surgeries in the communities in the Dulais Valley. The first is on May 13 at the Dove and the second on May 15 at Crynant Community Centre, both times being from 10am to noon. Katie would like anyone to come along to give their interesting story, show their interesting pictures, talk about their favourite view, walk or village site. Perhaps you would like to volunteer for a heritage-based project? Call Katie Millien, community heritage officer on 01639 701880 or e-mail katie@dulaivalley.org.
